

I oppose the weakening of the Indiana No-Call Law that prevents phone solicitors and businesses to call my home regarding the sale of products or services. Despite the fact that I bank with a company included in the CBA, I prefer to receive information about services only upon request.